Interests

Career Objective

Retired Navy Veteran pursuing my passion as a web developer. I am a responsible, self-motivated, passionate, team-player, currently studying web design at Platt College San Diego for my Bachelors Degree, and will graduate in November 2019. One of my short term goals is seeking an opportunity to build my experience and knowledge as a web developer. A long term goal is to lead a team or department of developers. My passion for web development comes from my enjoyment of problem-solving. The ability to solve problems that directly affect the user's experience inspires me to do it well.
